HOLIDAY MUSINGS

Here in the time zone between Christmas and New Years Day, musing about our mission and effectiveness needs to be refocused on and diligence to serve our fellow veterans who are in dire need of just our presence and whatever help we may be able to offer. Measuring the goodness that each of you bestow on our fellow veterans is a fruitless activity because there cannot be a value for something that is so valued.

Prior to Christmas, Dec 18 membership report left us 1800 members short of our 10,000 member goal. I have not at the time of this writing seen the year end membership numbers but expect we have a number of members that must be contacted and renewed to keep our Pup Tents healthy and vibrant. We can only survive by some focused attention to our membership and activities.

Communicate to your membership about their individual worth to your Pup Tent. Help develop activities that address our mission. Lack of planning and implementation of activities is the downfall of many faltering Pup Tents. Do not let that be the crushing factor for your Pup Tent.

Keep your head up, focus on activities that keep our veterans smiling in beds of white, and be sure and value each member who participates and is a positive force within your Pup Tent.

Your in LOTCS,

Olin Parks
Supreme Commander
2021-2022

"We must become more family oriented if we wish to remain functional - Olin."

Missouri Pup Tent 15 Family: We meet together and encourage our members to bring their children to our scratches and activities, thus encouraging younger veterans with children to be active. The mother's comment is, "The kids love coming to the Cootie's meeting/scratch because of the comradery they feel here and they love helping the veterans, as well as the Cootie humor!" The mother is VFWA district president and the father is district VFW Sr. Vice Commander. This is what I would hope every Pup Tent can promote and grow. Our members, as well as the veterans we go and see, love these kids and the message that they bring. This happens to be my Pup Tent.

– Olin Parks, Supreme Commander

From the Supreme Quartermaster

Listen Cooties,

I hope everyone had a lousy Christmas and New Year holidays. Now that I have passed on the pleasantries it is time to get to work on Membership. There are still several Pup Tents that have not submitted a current election report to Supreme. Specifically Pup Tent MA-052, MO-002, NJ-039, NJ-069, NJ-095. In addition, the following Pup Tents are not bonded and need to process their bond applications. Pup Tents, MA-014, MA-052, MN-011, MN-019, MS-007, MO-002, Grand of NJ, NJ-007, NJ-015, NJ-039, NJ-069, NY-035, OH-024, TX-005, TX-060 and WV-006. There is no excuse for this other than the Grand Commanders and Grand Adjutants are not doing their jobs.

All Seam Squirrels should check membership cards at their first scratch in January and verify that those attending are Cooties in good standing. Membership cards for the current year run out or expire on December 31, 2021.

Congratulations to the following Pup Tents for processing membership plus 2 new or reinstated cooties and being 100 plus 2 by the end of November. First place went to Pup Tent KS-006, second place goes to NY-042 and third place went to PA-059. Job well done, perhaps you could inform the other Pup Tents in your Grand how it is done.

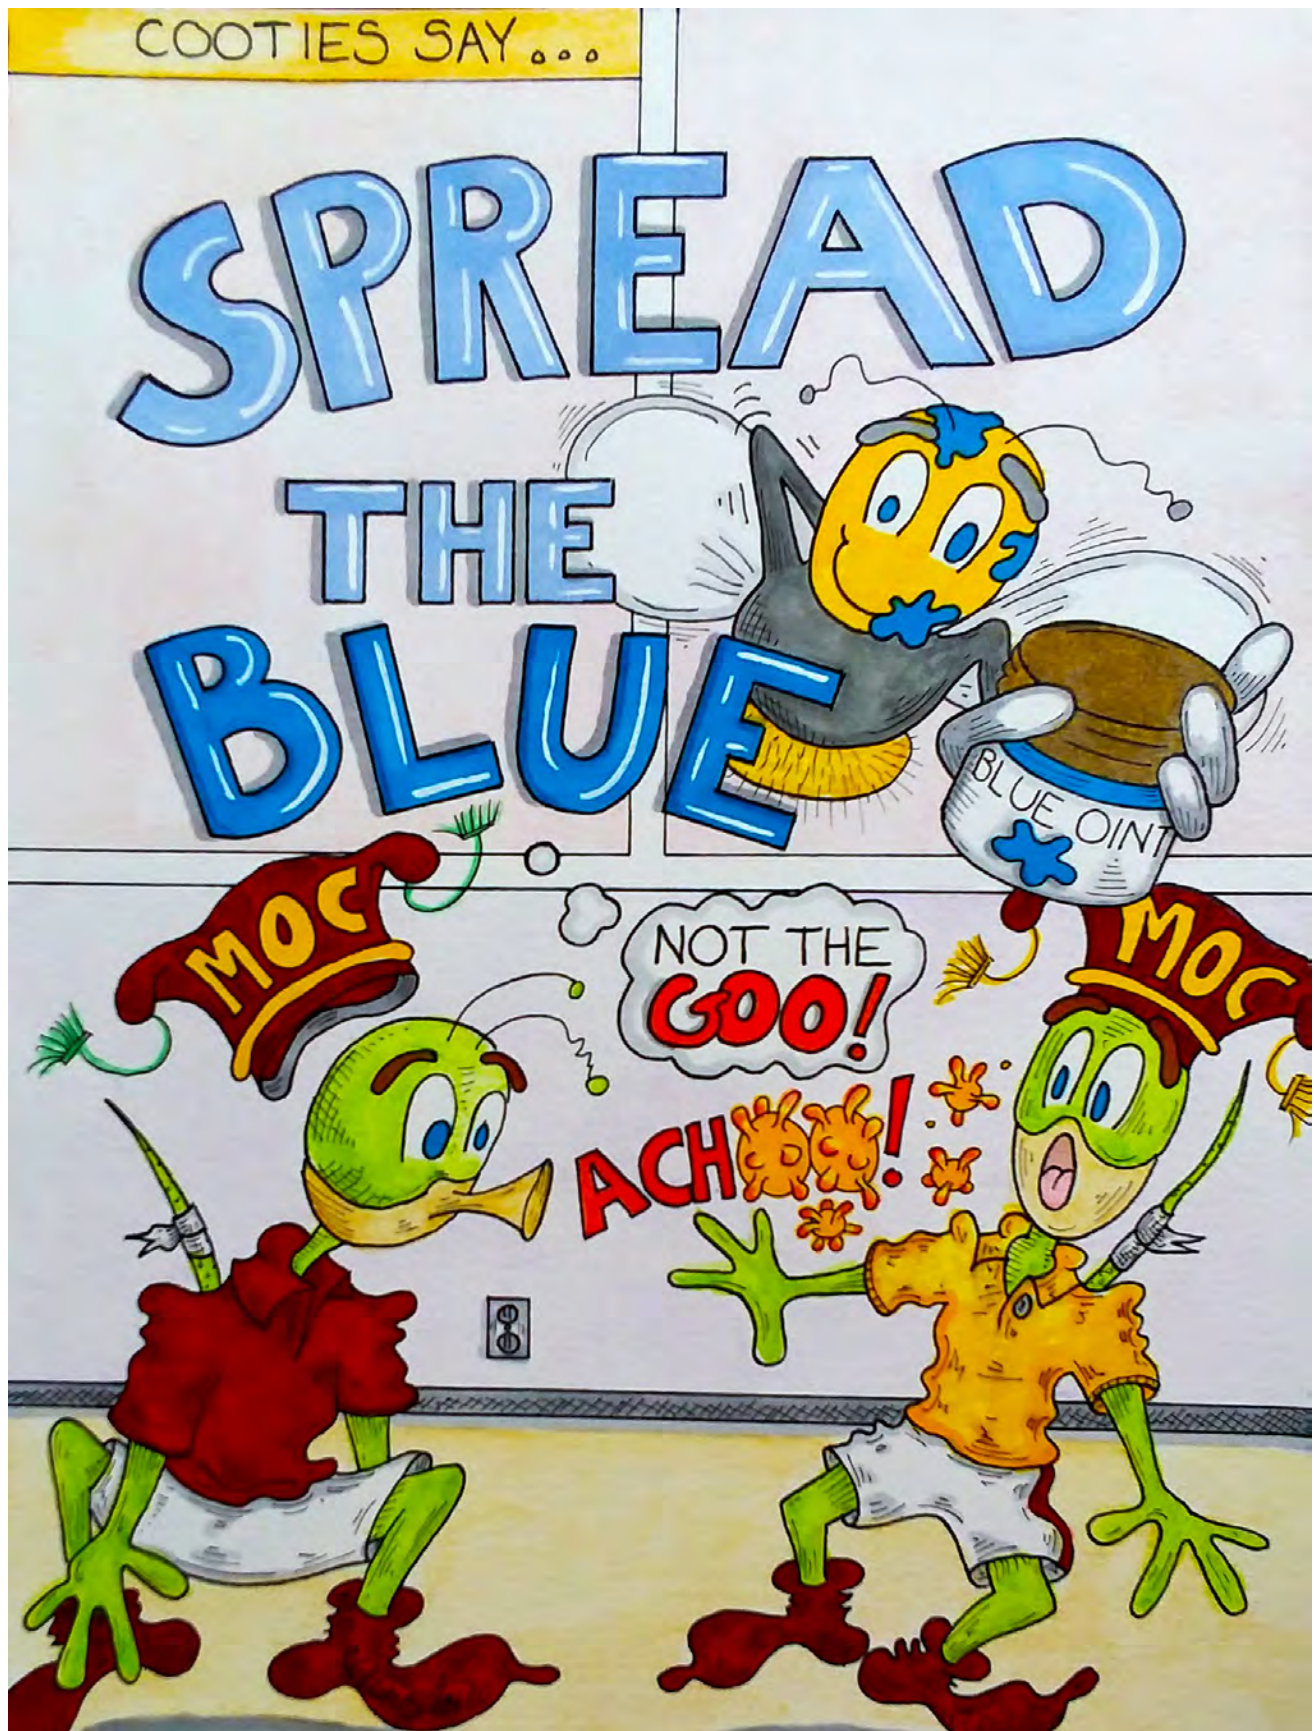

Its time to make your reservations for the Supreme Convention at the Overland Park Marriott hotel. The link to make reservations is on our website under the events tab.

The Red Star program at Supreme Headquarters has been around for a number of years and a lot of you have supported the organization by getting a red star. Because of the support you have provided to Supreme Headquarters over the past decade, Supreme Headquarters wants to give back to all Red Star members. From here on out when you purchase items through the Cootie Depot you will receive a 5% discount on your purchase. Thank you for your support and all the work you do. This offer is only available if you access the depot on our website, it is not available if you call an order in. You will be asked to provide your red star membership number which is the same as your life membership number.

Yours in LOTCS,

Gary Dressel, Supreme Quartermaster, 2021-2022

Holidays and the Veteran

Holidays can be very difficult for active-duty military, Veterans and their families. Listed below are some helpful tips from Veterans Outreach Center Inc.

- Older Veterans sometimes become isolated from their family due to being unable to get around efficiently. Severe depression can set in when the Veteran is unable to leave a VA hospital, nursing home or be house bound.
- o Veterans aged 55-74 have a higher rate of suicide compared to civilians of the same age group.
- o Veterans aged 55 or older still represent the largest number of suicides among the Veteran population.
- Younger Veterans face a different set of challenges during the holiday season. If they have recently left the military, they may be having trouble adjusting to civilian life and the holidays can add stress to the Veteran's life. Lots of noise and large crowds can trigger their PTSD symptoms.
- o Veterans aged 18-34 have the highest rate of suicide.
- o Show support for your fellow Veterans, even if it means just sitting with them and not talking.
- Active-duty members home for the holiday also experience added stress from large crowds and loud noises.
- o Remember to not ask too many questions about the military and past deployments.
- o Suicide among military members is higher than civilians.
- o Suicide rates among active-duty members has increased by 63% each year for the past 5 years.
- Family members of military service members can also experience difficulties during the holidays, especially if the member is deployed, injured or passed away. Always show respect towards the family members of a military service member because they serve in their own way.

reach out to them. Ensure they are doing ok. Invite them to your holiday celebration so they don't feel so alone. If they can't get out of their house, go to them. No one wants to feel like no one cares about them. It will only take a few minutes of your time to brighten the day of someone.

These suggestions don't apply to just the holidays. It's something we should do all year. Please watch out for each other.

Don't forget your flu shot and COVID vaccination or booster shot!

Yours in L.O.T.C.S,

Dani Hernandez

Are You a Cootie?

Supreme President's Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I hope all of my Cootie Brothers and Sisters are doing well. We have already gone through almost ½ a year and there is still a lot of work to be done.

Please push for new members. Also, push to get our current members who have not paid their 2022 dues. As of January 1st, they are no longer considered a member in good standing. On December 26th I received an updated membership report from our Supreme Treasurer, and as of the 24th we have 1 Grand that is 100% and 26 Auxiliaries that are 100%. Congratulations! There are a lot of Grands and Auxiliaries that only need 5 or more members to be 100%. That being said, we are still need over 1100 to be 100% for Supreme. EVERYONE please let's work on getting our membership up.

We instituted 1 new Auxiliary in December, (welcome Indy Racers #11), and we're currently working on 2 more, which is AWESOME! We need to keep building.

Audits will be due for October – December. Remember to send them to the Supreme Treasurer, not Supreme Headquarters.

I have only received Supreme Representative requests from 2 Grands. I handed out a modified version of the request form to get the dates. I still need the "Official Form", it is on the Supreme Website under Forms. Click on the Supreme tab and it is called "Supreme Representative Request". PLEASE fill it out and send it to me. You can snail mail, however, I would prefer that you to email it. You can scan it in and email or fill out the form, take a picture of the completed form and then email it to me. I need those A.S.A.P.

I would also like to see the MOCA page on the website to look similar to what the MOC has done, instead of the flag behind our logo I would like to see pictures of our auxiliary members. If you have any pictures, old or new please send them to our Webmaster, Dale: cootie-courier@lotcs.org. He will collect them and make a collage of the pictures and put it behind our logo.

Supreme Convention will be here before you know it. The hotel and banquet info are on the Supreme Website. If you are planning to go, make your reservations now.

To those who have lost a loved one or a dear friend, we are sending you our prayers and hugs. To those who are ill, here's wishing you a speedy recovery.

From my family to yours, I want to wish all of you a Safe, Healthy and Happy 2022.

Loyally,

Debbie Thie
Supreme President
2021-2022

Supreme MOCA Chaplain's Corner

Thank you for all the reports I received thus far this month. Many of you sent reports from July thru October...which is fine, and brought you up to date.

Please know that if there was a request for a Sympathy card for a member/family that is more that a month old, I will not include it on the card requests.

I feel that losing a family member is hard and sending a card 2 months or more late may not be the appropriate thing to do.

Please keep the reports coming and remember to send the death notices to Rebecca Wischmeyer.

Respectfully,

Patches Presfield
Supreme MOCA Chaplain
2021-2022

Auxiliary General Order #2

Military Order of the Cootie Auxiliary Supreme General Orders #2

2021-2022

PRESIDENTS ON ALL LEVELS, PLEASE PASS THIS INFORMATION TO YOUR MEMBERS!!!!

1. MEMBERSHIP – HELP WE STILL NEED MEMBERS!!!! I hope you are still pushing membership and getting those new members. Go out to your Bachelor Pup Tents and see if they would like an Auxiliary. Most of your VFW's will be having their mid-year conferences in January or February; there is a great place to get new members. Remember, the main requirement to become a member of the Military Order of the Cootie Auxiliary, is that they only have to be a VFWA member in good standing for 6 months.
2. A great big Welcome to our newest Auxiliary, Indy Racers #11 in Indianapolis, Indiana. They were instated and installed on Sunday, December 5th. I wish them much success.
3. TREASURERS – PLEASE, PLEASE, DO NOT HOLD DUES!!! Auxiliary Treasurers, the deadline is fast approaching to get you current members paid in order to remain in good standing. There are still Auxiliaries who have not turned in any dues. Transmittals have to be in the Supreme Treasurer's hands no later than December 20th. If you do not make this deadline your Grand and or Auxiliary will be put in suspension January 1st. Once you receive the dues from your members, complete your transmittal and forward your dues to your Grand Treasurer. Send your Transmittal to our Supreme Treasurer: Rebecca Wischmeyer 914 Bourn Ave., Columbia, MO 65203. Her phone number is 573-777-0248.
4. BONDS – The by-laws change we voted on at Supreme has been approved. By now ALL GRANDS should have appointed an Assistant Treasurer and have him or her bonded. Auxiliaries MAY appoint an Assistant Treasurer; (they do not have to unless they want to), if they appoint an Assistant Treasurer, then he or she must be bonded also.
5. COOTIE CHRISTMAS – Cootie Christmas was a success, even with the mask mandates. We still had about 12 families show up.
6. AUDITS – Reminder, ALL AUDITS GO TO THE SUPREME TREASURER, Rebecca Wischmeyer. DO NOT send them to the MOC Supreme Quartermaster. You can either snail mail them or scan them in and email a copy to supremetreasurer2021@icloud.com.

7. BY-LAWS & RITUALS: Please make sure that you purchase the most current By-laws as some of the By-Laws have been changed or new ones added. And I would like everyone to be on the same page. These can be ordered from our Supreme Treasurer.
8. SUPREME REPRESENTATIVE: Another Deadline is coming up fast. Please get your requests to me no later than December 31, 2021.
9. GRAND PRESIDENTS, please call me if your Grand or one of your Auxiliaries are having problems. If you don't want to talk to me, call Peggy Bell, Supreme Chief of Staff at 954-609-9489. We can't afford to lose any more Auxiliaries this year.
10. I want to want to wish all of you out there in Cootie Land a Merry Christmas and a safe, healthy and Happy New Year. To those who have lost loved ones and friends our sympathy and prayers are with you. To those who are ill, we are wishing you a speedy recovery.

Tomb Trek Memorial Service

Faith Woodman, Guest Speaker Wisconsin Grand Guard Mad City Pup Tent Auxiliary #41

Today we honor those who signed their name on the dotted line, willing to pay up to, and including, the ultimate sacrifice, and their loved ones who supported them through every trial and celebrated every homecoming, promotion, and even those rare letters or 30 second phone calls. We remember the price by those who came before them – paving the way for the future. Now these individuals have passed, and the future is in the hands of each person in this room. Without the lessons that our loved ones have passed down to us, which we will continue to pass down from generation to generation, the love for this country and support for those who dedicate their lives to protecting her, will eventually cease to exist – something that I know none of us will let happen.

In a few minutes, we will board buses that will take us to the most sacred cemetery in the United States of America. The wreaths laid at the Argonne Cross and the Tomb of the Unknown symbolize more than a simple 'you are not forgotten.' They represent a message of thanks. Thousands of soldiers gave their lives, not knowing if their names would ever be remembered or if their bodies would ever be identifiable. I feel confident, though, standing here and saying that each and every unknown soldier would do it again because it is through their sacrifice that tomorrow is safe. The presentations here, and the wreaths to be laid are our way of thanking these soldiers, and their loved ones, for preserving this great nation. As we walk through the sacred grounds of Arlington National Cemetery, I urge you to think about every sacrifice given, from 1776-November 7, 2021, that had led to our ability to be here today. It's easy to say that no soldier has been forgotten, but how often do we reflect on all of them? I urge you to take time to consider those who believed in our future so much that they turned their back on the monarchy in 1776, going down in British history as traitors, while we lift them up as heroes. Many of these courageous men didn't even live long enough to see the fruits of their sacrifice. We will be, and have been, walking on the same ground as those brave souls from every war that has taken place within the borders. Only a few inches of concrete separate our footprints. As you leave this room and this beautiful city, remember one thing. The future has been passed onto all of us. Protect it, pass on the lessons, and trust that the next generation, my generation, will continue to do the same.

VFW NATIONAL HOME FOR CHILDREN

Project: GaGa Ball Pit $4640

What are GaGa Ball Pits?

GaGa (literally ‘touch-touch’ in Hebrew) is a variant of dodge-ball that is played with one ball. GaGa Ball is thought to have originated in Israel. GaGa’s popularity has continued to rise in the US and is extremely popular at camps, schools, and playgrounds everywhere.

How do you play Gaga Ball?

GaGa is great for all ages, regardless of athletic skill or abilities. It is a gentler version of dodge-ball. All players start the game inside the pit, and the mediator introduces the ball into play. The object of the game is to avoid being struck by the ball. If the ball hits you below the knee at any time, you’re then “out” and must leave the pit. The last player standing is the winner. Players must dodge, run, jump, and get out of the way of being hit, while at the same time trying to hit opponents with a dodge-ball, below the knees.

VFW NATIONAL HOME FOR CHILDREN

Project: Gym Package (Total $5,440)

4-Giant 6 ft. beach ball $40 = $160

Volley Ball System for the Gym $3,000

Full indoor volley ball system in the gymnasium. This system will give us the ability to provide a great physical activity for the entire community on a year round basis.

6 sets-Bubble Soccer Balls $380= $2,280

Bubble Ball is like being in your own human bounce house. It's a hybrid of bumper cars, sumo wrestling, and ridiculousness! Some call it Bumper Ball, or Battle Balls. ... In Bubble Ball, players wear inflatable suits that allow them to bounce off each other and fall on the ground without getting hurt.

“Veterans Light up Our Lives”

AN IDEAL SOLDIER

On this day, October 8, in 1918 Corporal Alvin C. York almost single-handedly took out 35 machine guns, killed more than 20 machine gunners, and captured 132 German soldiers. He accomplished all of this before noon on this day, 103 years ago.

York's unit, the 328th Infantry Battalion, was brought to a halt by a hail of enemy machine gun fire in the Argonne Forest. According to York, the Battalion was being cut down like hay before a mower. He was chosen to be part of the 17-man detachment assigned the mission to circle round the enemy position and attempt to take it.

But before York's men reached the objective, German guns decimated their numbers. Soon York was just one of a few still able to fight. Taking one other soldier with him, York attacked the machine gun position. He used his superb skills as a marksman to pick off dozens of enemy soldiers.

When the German commander, First Lieutenant Paul Vollmer emptied his pistol at York with no success, he offered to surrender if York would stop the killing his soldiers. York agreed and ordered the Germans to vacate their machine guns and disarm. Corporal York and the few remaining Americans gathered the 128 German soldiers and four officers and marched them back to headquarters.

For his actions that morning, York was promoted to Sergeant and awarded the Medal of Honor. He became a national hero and was celebrated in cities across America. To capitalize on his fame, many businesses offered him lucrative deals to use his name, purchase his endorsements, and even put him in show business.

But Alvin York turned them all down. In the years following WWI, Alvin York only used his fame and reputation to bring construction projects, education opportunities, utilities, and roads to the people in and around his home in Pall Mall, Tennessee. He devoted his life to many charitable causes and only authorized biographers to tell his story to raise support for these labors of love.

You see, Alvin C. York was not only a fearsome warrior. He was also a man of God and of faith in the Bible. He was so committed to the teachings of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount that he initially identified as a conscientious objector before the draft board. But with the encouragement of a deeply devout Army officer and his own search of the Scripture, Alvin came to see that Christianity and military service are not incompatible. Indeed, Sergeant York would go on to credit God for protecting him and helping him “save the day” on October 8, 1918.

Chaplain David Causey
US Army Retired

And throughout his days, Alvin York would remain committed to supporting America’s military and even sought to enlist during WWII. But because of his age and declining health, the Army instead commissioned him as a major in the Army Signal Corps. As a Signal officer, York toured military camps and raised support for the war effort.

Above all, Alvin York reminded the country of what it means to be an American. His faith in God, selfless service, ruggedness, patriotism, and courage under fire represented the ideal that all Americans should strive for.

Alvin C. York 1919

And for many people of faith, York demonstrated that a person could love Jesus Christ and love his own country as well. He could be committed to peace but be ready for war. And York proved that, of all people, Christian believers are best suited for service in the military. For Jesus said His followers are the “light of the world” and no place is darker and in more need of light than a combat zone.

Christian believers are a force for honesty, integrity, unity, and selflessness among their fellow soldiers. In combat they are a safeguard against atrocities and war crimes. And who is better able to offer hope to desperate soldiers and prayers to God, than someone who has a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

We hear a lot of voices these days that say the military is no place for a Christian believer. We hear that the military is being politicized and is becoming more godless, even Marxist. That’s all the more reason for a Christian believer to serve in the Armed Forces. They can be Christ’s instruments of redemption and peace where help is needed most.

Pray for the members of our military. Though, sadly, the military’s most senior leaders tend to be self-serving careerists and politicians, the core of the Armed Forces is committed to America and embraces traditional values. Pray for them. Pray that God will raise up more men and women of God to fill the ranks of our military. Pray that the men and women of our Armed Forces will be physically strong, morally straight, and spiritually fit.

PRAYER: Dear heavenly Father, please bless the men and women of our Armed Forces, who serve on freedom's frontier to defend our lives, freedoms, and way of life night and day. Please raise up men and women of God to fill the ranks of our military ... and to be brave and selfless leaders over them. Please our military members physically strong, morally straight, and spiritually fit. Please grant them supreme success in their mission to defend our nation and to deliver the oppressed. And please, dear God, protect them from all danger and harm and bring them safely back from deployment into the arms of their families and loved ones, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

At the end of their day he was given three crocheted large blankets. Now this sewing group is one of three different groups of ladies in the Roseville to Loomis Areas that have been making wheel chair bags, pillow cases, laundry bags, lap blankets and sweater caps. This same group of ladies, plus the other two groups made 2,845 face masks for hospitals last year.

Grand of Maryland

Pup tent 04 in Essex Maryland, Cootie Phil Beinke (VAVS Rep at Perry Point Medical Center), reached a new personal pint donation of 100 pints of whole blood on October 1st, 2021.

He estimates that it takes about one hour and twenty minutes to donate, and 40 minutes travel time to the Red Cross for a total time of 2 hours per donation. Multiply that by 100 pints, and you get 200 hours. That is five 40 hour weeks.

Phil plans to continue donating blood as long as his health holds.

So fellow Cooties, why not call 1-800-RED- CROSS, and make an appointment to donate soon.

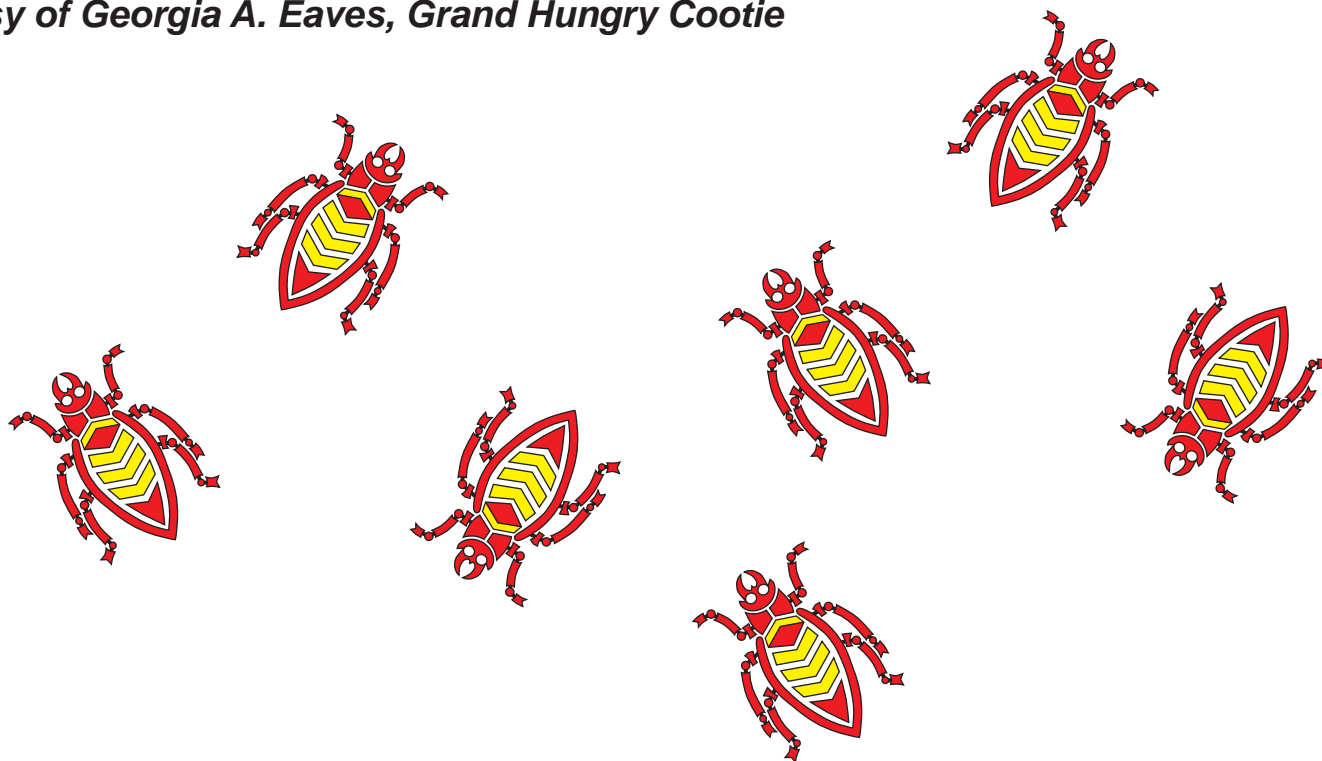

Please save a life. Give blood today.

GRAND OF NEW JERSEY CHILDREN'S ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

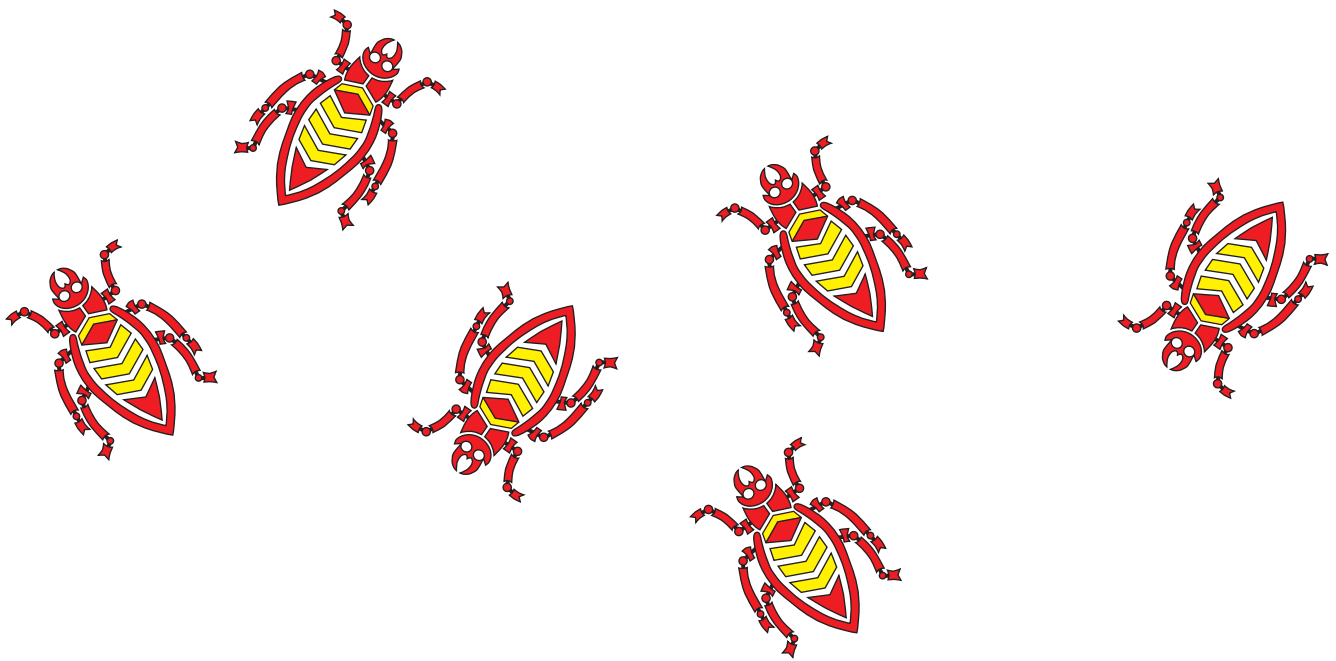

This is our fifth year of sponsoring this special event. For most of these kids, it is the only Christmas they will have. This year we served over 130 free "all you can eat breakfasts" with a value of over $1,000.00

In addition, each child received a special toy of their choice, a stuffed Christmas stocking and plenty of candy and Christmas treats. The value exceeded $700.00.

A special thanks to Santa and our sponsor, VFW Post 2179, for the use of their kitchen and facilities.

For Supreme Inspections we're at 52%. We can do Lousier, eh? I know that I will be fined a huge bragging fee, but being from the Grand of Washington, we always are at 100% thanks to dedicated Cooties like PGC Dwight Booth Jr. He always ensures that all of our Pup Tents are in a totally Crummy state of operation! Like I said in the last issue, inspections ensure that a Pup Tent is functioning properly. Without inspections, how can an Atom take those backward steps? How can a scratch be conducted? Will the new 3rd degree password be determined properly? Are Cootie dollars being accounted for? Have the general orders been read to Specie Pediculi?

Finally, there's a new COVID-19 variant out there, Omicron! So, please get vaccinated if possible, eh? When you're fully vaccinated you can "Spread the Blue and not the Goo!" Also, remember social distancing and wear a mask. If we follow CDC guidelines, we'll be back in the hospitals and nursing homes ensure that we're "Keepin' 'em Smilin' in Beds of White!"
