From the Supreme Commander

Listen Up Cooties,

First, I want to share a big thank you to all the Cooties and MOCA Members that have been supporting some of the natural disasters around the country. We deal with this every year, and I am very thankful that we are all paying attention to these situations.

We are making great strides in the business of the MOC. As we continue to connect with the VFW, our parent organization, we are getting the word out of what we do and how we can and will support our parent organization, the Veterans of Foreign Wars while accomplishing our mission or Keep `Em Smiling in Beds of White.

I am traveling a lot and visiting many Grands and Pup Tents. As I travel, I want to visit as many Cooties as I can, so do not be surprised if I pop in at your post to say hello to the Cooties and MOCA members, Comrades and Auxiliary. I will probably call a few days before I stop in as my schedule will fluctuate as things come up.

The Veteran's Administration is starting to open some hospitals for visits of small groups. I know that each state is still dealing with Covid residual, and policies are moving slowly. I ask that you be patient with all the situations that are coming slowly, and we continue to do what we can to support our mission.

We are continuing with the zoom meetings this year. The first Monday of the month is for the MOC and MOCA to share ideas and learn from each other of what is going on around the country. The third Monday of the month is for the Supreme Council, Grand Commanders, and any other Cooties to sit in and learn some things about what is going on within Supreme and its programs. If you are interested, please contact Supreme Adjutant, Tracy Woodman at mocsupremeadjutant@gmail.com.

I can't thank you all enough for your sacrifices of time, talent, and treasure your support for our Military Order of the Cootie and the veterans and families that need our support. We are a great relief for veterans worldwide and we will continue to be.

I wish you all a very Lousy time of year and if you don't come to Tomb Trek and or Cooties Christmas, I would like to ask that you all have a wonderful holiday season.

Yours in L.O.T.C.S.

From the Supreme Quartermaster

Listen Cooties,

So far, this year is going well, membership is coming in but it could be greater. Quartermasters, please remind your Seam Squirrels and CCDB's that membership for annual members stops on Dec. 31, 2022; after that they are no longer members in good standing. In addition, the Cootie application has been changed and modified. Please start using the new form NOW. All previous application forms will NOT be accepted after December 31, 2022. The new form is on the website under Forms/pup tent starter kit or the membership tab.

I look forward to seeing a lot of you at Tomb Trek; travel safely on the way there and back home. After that is Cootie Christmas at the National Home. The Home has finally gotten the truck and plow that we paid for in 2021.

I am going to Phoenix in early October to see the hotels that have responded to our request for a proposal for our convention next year. As soon as I have a signed contract, I will have the information posted on our website. Please remember that all Pup Tents must register a delegate for the Supreme Convention, as usual the cost is $15.00 if sent in prior to July 15, 2023.

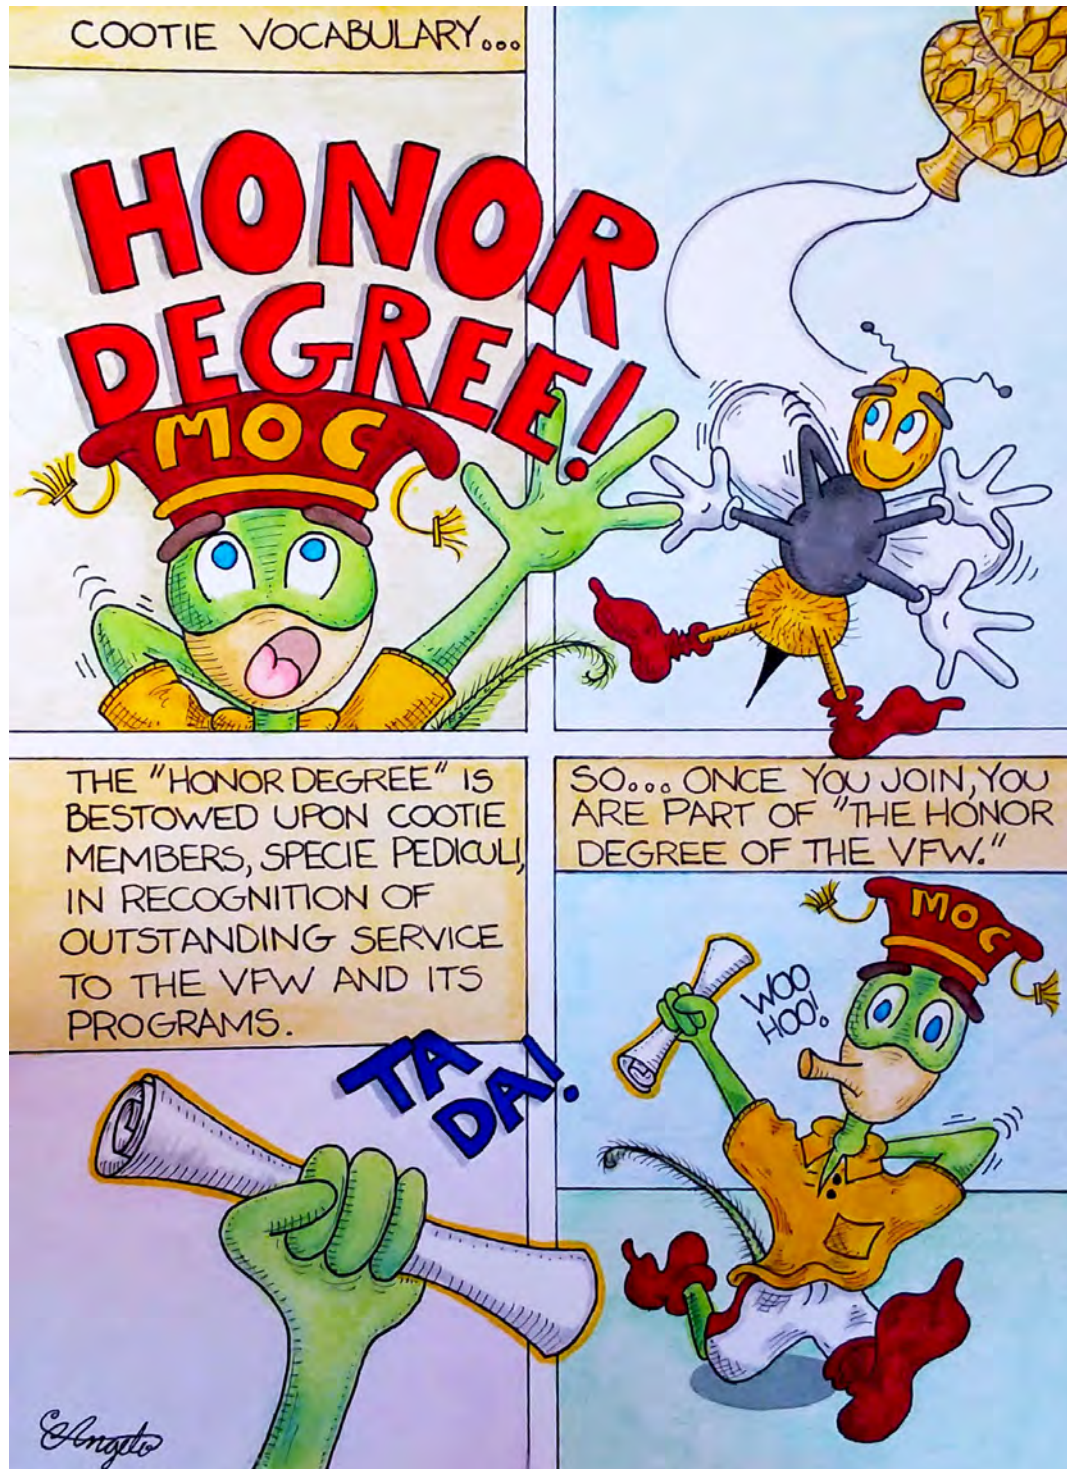

My supply clerk wants me to let you know that we have added a new pair of socks to our inventory and it is posted on the website, item 9977. We will have them at Tomb Trek.

Yours in LOTCS,

Gary Dressel

Honor Degree

After completing your 3rd degree initiation, did you ever wonder where your "Honor Degree" was? We are the "Honor Degree" of the VFW, right? Well, now there is an actual "Honor Degree" for our Crummy Fraternity of Specie Pediculi; authorized by our Supreme Commander, Olin Parks. The PDF fillable version can be found on the Forms page under the Pup Tent tab: <https://www.lotcs.org/forms.html>. So, once you have completed your 3rd degree initiation, you now will have proof of your journey from Atom to Nit to Grayback and finally to a Cootie. What about if you've already completed your 3rd degree initiation? Not to worry, the degree is retroactive. So, have the present Seam Squirrel (the issuing authority) print your degree.

Are you new to our Crummy Fraternity? Do you know what LOTCS means? Do you know what a Sock Check is? What's a Shavetail? How do you check if one is a Cootie or not? Scan the QR code to find out in our Comic Book.

Flu Season 2022-2023

It's that time of year where we are entering the flu season. The CDC has published some key facts about this year's seasonal flu vaccine.

1. Why should people get vaccinated against the flu?

The flu is a potentially serious disease that can lead to hospitalizations or death. Complications from the flu can range from ear or sinus infections, bacterial pneumonia and the worsening of chronic medical conditions such as asthma, diabetes and congestive heart failure. Getting an annual flu vaccination is the best way to protect yourself against getting the flu.

2. How does flu vaccines work? The vaccine will help your body produce antibodies against influenza viruses that research has determined will be the most common for the 2022-2023 flu season. All flu vaccinations in the U.S. protect against four different viruses: An influenza A(H3N2) virus, an influenza A(H1N1) virus and two influenza B viruses.

3. Flu Vaccine Options. For people younger than 65, the CDC does not preferentially recommend any age-appropriate, licensed flu vaccines over another during this year's flu season. Options for this group include recombinant influenza vaccine (RIV), live attenuated influenza vaccine (LAIV) or inactivated influenza vaccine (IIV).

New for this season: For those aged 65 or older, there are three flu vaccines that are recommended over the standard-dose, unadjuvanted flu vaccines. These vaccines include Flublok Quadrivalent recombinant flu vaccine, Flud Quadrivalent adjuvanted flu vaccine and Fluzone High-Dose Quadrivalent vaccine.

All vaccines for the 2022-2023 season are quadrivalent vaccines and will protect you from two influenza A viruses and two influenza B viruses.

Always check with your Doctor to see which is the right vaccine for you.

4. When should I get vaccinated? For those only needing one dose of the flu vaccine for the season, September and October is usually the preferred time to get a flu shot.

5. What are the benefits of getting a flu shot?

- The vaccination can keep you from getting sick with the flu.
- The vaccination has been shown to reduce the severity of illness in people who get the flu shot but still get sick.

- c. The vaccination can reduce the risk of being hospitalized with the flu.
- d. The vaccination is an important preventative tool for people with certain chronic health conditions.
- e. By getting vaccinated, you can protect the people around you.

Please take care of yourself this flu season and get your flu shot.

Yours in L.O.T.C.S.,

FROM THE SUPREME VAMPIRE

Good evening, Cooties. I say evening since nighttime is more comfortable for me.

I sincerely hope that you are having a “Lousy” time working to try and bring the Smiles to our Veterans in state ceteran homes, VA health care facilities and private nursing facilities around the country and the globe.

Our Country always has an extreme need for the Precious Fluid that we as Cooties and the public as a whole carry around in our bodies every waking moment.

We know that many of us cannot give of ourselves because of personal medical conditions and medications that prevent us from doing so. But, we can still help organize blood drives at our VFW post homes with the Pup Tent as the sponsor. Maybe the Blood Mobile will allow you to sponsor at another location. Just make the effort and you can report all of the collections.

I have changed the Supreme Vampire report form for donations to reflect Whole Blood, Platelets, and Plasma separately. Each has a medical use unto itself and are extremely medically valuable in their own right.

There will be awards at the Supreme Scratch for Grands and Pup Tents who have reported the most in each category. So, from now on put the heat on your Pup Tent Vampire and Grand Vampire to report, report, report. And, those Cooties that have hit some personal milestones, recognition is coming their way, too.

Dawn is approaching, so I must take a nap. I look forward to seeing great efforts by each Grand, Pup Tent and Cootie.

Yours in LOTCS,

Frank Presfield

From the Supreme Pappa Clown

Greeting my Crummy Cootie Clowns (C3).

It was great to see so many of you at the Supreme Scratch.

In this issue I just want to remind you how easy it is to certify as an MOC Clown.

1. Put together a clown outfit made up of at least three pieces of clown clothing (Something funny, weird, or outrageous. Just so long as it is not offensive.)
2. Wear your clown outfit to at least three MOC hospital events and have pictures taken.
3. Send the pictures, with the dates and places for each event to your Grand Hospital Chair. They will send a form to me, and I will send you your pins and cards.

In Respectful Service,

From the Supreme VAVS Chairman

Hello everyone.

My team is working to build the MOC VAVS program. Our hope is to get more certified volunteers in as many VA medical sites as we can, and to get certified VAVS Representatives and Deputies in every VA medical center.

I am available to answer any questions you have. In each Cootie edition, I will try to share new information to help out.

What is a VAVS volunteer? There are two types of volunteers. Regular Volunteers, who are certified by the VA and have one or more regular assignments in their local VA Medical Facility. Then there are Casual Volunteers. These Cooties only come to special events and do not have a regular assignment.

Two regular assignment programs the VA is building up are Ambassadors and No Veteran Dies Alone. Ambassadors are responsible for greeting veteran patients who come to the VA and help them find their way around the facility. This is not a big deal in the smaller facilities but is critical in the much larger locations.

Cooties assigned to No Veteran Dies Alone will work in the Palliative care unit. When a veteran patient is coming to the end of their life, these volunteers sit with them doing what ever makes them comfortable. The volunteer might read to the patient, talk with them, or sit quietly next to the bed. But, they ensure the patient feels as peaceful as possible and knows someone cares and is with them to the end.

You should check with your local VAMC to determine what volunteer slots are available in your area.

I'll talk to you again soon.

In Respectful service,

Allan T. Perkins

Supreme President's Message

Hello Brothers and Sisters,

Congratulations to our newly elected MOCA Officers and Appointed Chairmen; we are going to be a great Team this year. Congratulations to Dwight Hora for being our newly elected Supreme Commander. We are both here to help and guide you!

To those who attended our Supreme Convention I wish each affected by the COVID outbreak a speedy recovery. To my Cootie Family on both sides of the MOC/MOCA house I want to Thank You for helping us make it through a very trying time. You have continued to do your best to preserve our programs by helping our Veterans and their families through these past 2 years. You have accomplished many things by thinking outside the box to achieve goals through amazing ideas. We need to develop a line of communication for sharing ideas to achieve goals, raise funds and support those "In Beds of White." Auxiliaries, let you Grand or (NIG) Chaplains know about your ill or deceased members. Get Well Soon and Prayers to those who lost loved ones.!

I am throwing out a "Challenge" to increase our membership by EVERY Member. For those who sign up 4 New or Reinstated members during this year, I will be giving out special gifts in addition to membership awards. We must INCREASE to survive. It's our Veterans in Hospitals who suffer if we are not able to support them and their families. In addition to our children's scholarship program and the National Home, my special National Home project is the Music program.

To find anything MOCA related, go to: https://www.lotcs.org/MOCA/moca_index.html. Or go the MOC Supreme home page: <https://www.lotcs.org> and click on the MOCA emblem to be redirected to the Auxiliary side. Once there, look under Forms tab to find Office/Chairman forms. Also, look under the News and Events tabs to find dates for upcoming events or important general orders. There is much information to be found there. Please read it all and make sure you pass it along.

Housekeeping: It's Dues time! "Please" get your 2023 dues in! Treasurers PLEASE do not hold them. Remember 31 Dec is the deadline to remain in good standing. The Audits for July, August and September will be due next month. Your Bonds should have been paid by the end of August and your 990 has to be done by November 15, 2022.

Loyally,

Cathy Seippel (and Tink)

Supreme President
2022-23

MOCA General Order 01

PRESIDENTS ON ALL LEVELS, PLEASE PASS THIS INFORMATION TO YOUR MEMBERS!!!!!!

I am looking forward to a great year.

1. Membership - Our membership needs to grow. We all need to work hard. We have eleven possible members every time someone joins a VFW auxiliary so go get them please. As you know this year we are working together with MOC, VFW and our auxiliaries. Let's make this a great year for one and all.
2. Treasurers - PLEASE, DO NOT HOLD DUES!!! This year all treasures need hard copy books. There is no excuse. Presidents, this is part of your job to make this happen. Also we are using Robert's rules of order. If at a meeting someone stands and calls for a vote, this means all questions and talk stops. The motion on the floor is voted on now. When you call for the Question means close debate and call for vote. This is not a motion.
3. Respect - Remember at a meeting to have respect for each other. We are here to have fun, not talk over each other or to cause people to question each other, or to hear yourself speak.

To those who have lost loved ones and friends our sympathy and prayers are with you. To those who are ill we wish you a speedy recovery.

Thank you for all you do and keep up the great work.

By Order of

Cathy Seippel

Sky Pilot - Chaplain of the Year

Sky Pilot / Chaplain of the Year Program 2022-2023

Objective: The Supreme Commander desires that special recognition be given to outstanding Sky Pilots and Chaplains in the Military Order of the Cootie.

Mission: The Sky Pilots and Chaplains in the MOC are second to none. Their labor of love brings true credit to the MOC and its programs. The Supreme Sky Pilot or Chaplain of the Year Program is an excellent opportunity to recognize your best Sky Pilot or Chaplain. Sky Pilots of the Pup Tent, Chaplains of the Grand, District or Area, have been recognized at the Supreme Scratch each year as Supreme Sky Pilot of the Year or Chaplain of the Year since Cootie Year 1975-1976.

Selection:

1. Selection of the Supreme Sky Pilot of the Year or Chaplain of the Year is done from letters of nominations sent by Pup Tent Seam Squirrels, Grand District and Area Commanders, Grand Commanders, and Supreme Council Members to the Supreme Chaplain.
2. Letters of nominations are judged by a Select Committee of no less than three people who are NOT members of the MOC or VFW, but who understand fully the work or labor of the Chaplain. Any Sky Pilot and Chaplain previously selected as Sky Pilot of the Year or Chaplain of the Year on any level is not eligible for recognition a second time at that level. However, if they are honored at one level, they can be honored at another.
3. Nominations letters should be written on MOC letterhead.
4. Letters postmarked after 15 May 2023 will not be considered. Nomination letters may be mailed between 1 June 2022 and 15 May 2023.
5. Letters of nomination should contact facts, not just words. We have Sky Pilots and Chaplains who do great work in this, and our parent, organizations. So please nominate them and get them recognized by sending your letter to the Supreme Chaplain.
6. Do not let your Sky Pilot or Chaplain down. Please make a nomination for this honor. If you don't nominate them, they may not be recognized.

THE INCREDIBLY STUPID ONE

In June 1967, Douglas Brent Hegdahl appeared at the Navy Recruiting office in his hometown of Clark, South Dakota to enlist and fight for his country. As Doug spoke to the Navy recruiter, he explained that he had only one stipulation. He wanted to go to Australia.

The recruiter produced orders assigning him to the USS Canberra, a missile cruiser, named for Australia's capital city. "With a title like that, the ship's bound to stop near its namesake," the recruiter told him. That was good enough for Doug, so he signed on the dotted line.

After completing boot camp, Doug Hegdahl assumed duties on the missile cruiser. Early one morning (0330) Hegdahl awoke to prepare for his watch in the aft ammunition handling room at 0400. But before beginning his watch, he went on deck to get a bit of fresh air. This was a fateful decision. For the Canberra was about to begin shelling North Vietnam from just three miles off its coast in the Gulf of Tonkin. Once shelling commenced, the blast from the ship's eight-inch guns knocked Doug overboard.

The thunderous guns drowned Hegdahl's cries for help as the Canberra steamed out of sight. Fortunately, Hegdahl remembered his water survival training. He removed his dungarees and used them as a floatation device and waited to be rescued. A Cambodian fishing boat picked Hegdahl up and turned him over to North Vietnamese officials.

Believing he might be a CIA agent – he was too tall to be a pilot, the officials sent Doug to the infamous "Hanoi Hilton" for interrogation. After several weeks of abuse, he employed a strategy of "playing stupid" before his captors. For instance, Hegdahl convinced his captors that he was their equivalent of a "poor illiterate peasant." His portrayal was so convincing that he earned the name "the incredibly stupid one."

Believing he posed no threat to them, the guards allowed Hegdahl free range of the camp to sweep it clean. They even gave him glasses to see better. But Hegdahl used his reputation as an idiot against his captors and for the good of his fellow prisoners.

Chaplain David Causey
US Army Retired

He disabled all the prison's trucks by contaminating their fuel lines. He committed to his phenomenal memory all the details of the camp – its layout, location within the city, cell numbers, location of each inmate, schedule, procedures, staff members, and war crimes. He used the strokes of his broom to tap coded messages to other prisoners. He also memorized the names of all 256 of his fellow prisoners – including personal identifiable information about them (rank, dates of capture, names of children and pets).

Since Doug was armed with so much valuable intel, his cellmate and immediate supervisor, Navy Commander Dick Stratton, hatched a plan. He ordered Doug to volunteer to be one of the North Vietnamese's "token prisoners" to be sent home for propaganda purposes.

To Hegdahl this was a distasteful order. All the prisoners had bound themselves to an oath not to accept such favors from the enemy. But Commander Stratton knew that Hegdahl possessed critical information that the U.S. Armed Forces needed to know. So, he gave him a direct order to accept the favor and go back to America.

Once he arrived in America (1969), Hegdahl divulged all his critical intelligence. The military discovered that 256 officers who were listed as missing or presumed dead were actually alive! He also revealed the horrific conditions and the torture they endured while in captivity. He described in detail the layout of the prison and its daily routines.

Multi-millionaire, Ross Perot, flew Hegdahl to Paris so he could appear before the North Vietnamese delegation at the peace talks. There he accused them of mistreating their prisoners – describing in detail the tortures their guards inflicted upon American captives. This resulted in a wave of political pressure from around the world against North Vietnam. Almost immediately the Hanoi Hilton's quality of life improved for the American prisoners. More and better rations, better treatment, and the cessation of torture followed.

But Doug Hegdahl did tell the delegation one huge lie. He accused the North Vietnamese of murdering his former cellmate, Commander Stratton because he had embarrassed the guards in a photo. Why did Hegdahl tell such a lie? He knew it would place pressure upon North Vietnam to produce the commander alive – and well. It worked. The North Vietnamese made sure no evil befell him. They ensured that, when Commander Stratton was released, he would be in perfect health – minus the scars they inflicted on his body.

After his release, Stratton wrote this tribute to his former cellmate. “‘The incredibly stupid one,’ my personal hero, is the archetype of the innovative, resourceful, and courageous American Sailor. These Sailors are the products of the neighborhoods, churches, schools, and families working together to produce individuals blessed with a sense of humor and a gift of freedom who can overcome any kind of odds. These Sailors are tremendously loyal and devoted to their units and their leaders in their own private and personal ways. As long as we have “the Doug’s” of this world, our country will retain its freedoms.”

Doug Hegdahl is also a supreme example of how any of us, under the darkest and most adverse and restrictive circumstances, can still be a blessing to many. It was in the adversity of prison that Joseph was molded into the savior of both Egypt and the inhabited world. It was in prison that Paul’s most powerful epistles (Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, Philemon, and 2 Timothy) were written. His imprisonment (at least while in Caesarea) may have also helped produce the Gospel of Luke and the Book of Acts. And it was in prison that John Bunyan penned what was once the world’s most read book, apart from the Bible, The Pilgrim’s Progress.

If you feel imprisoned by circumstances, family responsibilities, work responsibilities, or perhaps by a military deployment, do not despair. Nor should you shift to autopilot and simply “serve your time.” Instead, determine in your heart that, by God’s grace and help, you will be a blessing where the Lord has planted you. Seek to grow through your ordeal, so you will emerge from it greater than when you entered it.

PRAYER: Dear Father in heaven, please give me the grace, power, and faith to rise to the occasion and be a blessing to others wherever You plant me. Why else do You light a lamp, but to place it in the darkness where its light is needed most? Amen.

Grand of Michigan

In August we had two main events supporting the VFW National Home for Children (VFW NHC); the Cedar Point Trip and Michigan Day. In September the Grand participated in the Romeo Michigan Peach Festival Parade.

The Cedar Point Trip is a Grand of Michigan function where we purchase admission tickets for children, their parents and chaperones, for a fun filled day at the Cedar Point Amusement Park in Sandusky, Ohio. Working in conjunction with Department of Ohio, VFW Post 2529 in Sandusky, their Auxiliary and the Dad's of Foreign Service Veterans Post 32, who provided transportation (if required) from the VFW National Home to VFW Post 2529, to the amusement park and back to Eaton Rapids, MI. They also provided brunch for the attendees and gift cards for purchases at the amusement park. Everyone had a truly LOUSY time at the park.

Thank you Post 2529!

This is the third year out of the past four (2020 was canceled), that the Grand of Michigan M.O.C. and M.O.C.A. members participated in the Romeo Peach Festival Parade. We had marchers and riders in the parade and passed out tons of candy. There had to have been approximately 20,000 people along the parade route. This brings awareness of the Military Order of the Cootie and the Auxiliary in our State. It is always a blast!

A check for $15,139.38 was presented to golf course director Bruce McKenty for last year's special project for 2021-2022 for American Lake Veterans Golf Course Disabled/Handicap Training Program.

The American Lake Veterans Golf Course provides affordable, enjoyable golf for all our veterans and their family members. They do this through a volunteer force of over 230 volunteers who manage, operate, and maintain this beautiful 18-hole golf course, designed by Jack Nicklaus, and its support facilities. Their mission is to help veterans "heal through the power of golf" and they feel they accomplish that mission daily. They do a very good job in the mobility impaired arena.

Listen Cooties!

First of all I would like to echo the Supreme Commander's thanks for all those responding to the natural disasters this year. Brad Henry once said, "The worst thing that we can do is do nothing." The article about the "Incredibly Stupid One" on page 32 tells of how Douglas Brent Hegdahl did "something" in the Vietnam War to help the POW brothers.

Have you received your Honor Degree certificate yet from your Pup Tent? If not, see the article on page 9 of this issue to find out how.

Are you a Red Star Life Member? If not, you can find out how on page 50. Once you are a Red Star Life Member you are eligible for a 5% discount on the Cootie Depot.

Have you invited an atom to take those backward steps and become a part of our Crummy Fraternity? There's a cartoon on page 53 that shows what the transformation from an atom to a nit looks like.

I thank everyone for sending in articles to our Crummy Rag. This any issue wouldn't be possible without Specie Pediculi input. Remember when submitting content to include who, what, when, where and why in your submissions and when sending in photos, I accept JPEG, PDF, TIFF and PNG files.
