

Cootie Tickle

October 2023

Listen Cooties, and all of the Crummies,

Here are some of my Crummy mumblings and musings!

As we get thru the first 5 months of the reporting. In straight speak, FLABBERGASTED - does not even start to express my feelings in reference to the efforts towards the Big Boot Program.

In Cootie speak, I am appalled and ashamed to even be associated with all of you vermin. blah, blah, it is absolutely Crummy and despicable...Lousiness abounds in your everyday life... keep up all the contentiousness you can. I am not even sure who thought we could be called the Honor Degree, as all of you prove it every day!

Yours in the LOTCS,
